Exhibit 1: Exam-Related Case Flow

PCP begins investigation and candidate’s exam results held

PCP investigates matter, collects and analyzes evidence

Based on preponderance of evidence, PCP determines how to proceed

- Lack of sufficient evidence of violation
  - Case is closed with no action, CP receives letter closing case, and exam results released

- Sufficient evidence of violation
  - PCP sends CP Statement of Charges
    - CP accepts or fails to reject Statement of Charges
      - Findings of fact, conclusion of violation deemed admitted; sanction imposed; exam results voided and case closed
    - CP rejects Statement of Charges
      - Matter is referred to Hearing Panel
