

2011 CANDIDATE SURVEY REPORT

Candidates rate the value of earning the CFA charter very highly, with an average value rating of 9.0 out of 10. The primary reasons candidates gave for registering for the June 2011 exam are career advancement or eventual salary increase, increase in knowledge, credibility of the CFA designation, and improved chances of obtaining a job.

What was the most important factor that convinced you to register for the June 2011 examination?

*Other includes right time in my life, relevance to my job, recommendation and other.

Exam Preparation

Overall, candidates spent an average of 302 hours preparing for the exam.

Candidates used a variety of preparation resources. In most cases, use of specific resources was higher among candidates who passed the exam.

About how many hours did you spend preparing for the June 2011 CFA exam?

What resources did you use to prepare for the June 2011 exam?

How well do you think the following prepared you for the CFA exam?

Key

- All Candidates
- Candidates who passed exam
- Candidates who failed exam

Source: pre-exam survey and post-exam survey, May–July 2011

Number indicates percentage of those who answered very well or well. Excludes those that did not use the preparatory resource.

Please indicate the percentage of your total preparation time spent doing each of the following (average shown).

Excludes those that did not use the preparatory resource.

What is your main reason for choosing not to take the free CFA Institute mock exam?

What is your main reason for choosing not to take any of the CFA Institute online sample exams?

Approximately, what percentage of the CFA Program curriculum assigned readings did you read?

Excludes those who did not use CFA Program curriculum.

Please rate the degree of usefulness of each topic area as it relates to your job.

Number indicates percentage of those who answered very useful or useful.

Key

- All Candidates
- Candidates who passed exam
- Candidates who failed exam

Source: pre-exam survey and post-exam survey, May-July 2011

Exam Day

For most exam topics, a higher proportion of candidates that failed than passed rated them as very challenging or challenging.

The exam consisted of the following topic areas. Please rate the degree of difficulty for each.

Number indicates percentage of those who answered very difficult or difficult.

Please indicate the extent to which you agree or disagree with the following statements.

Number indicates percentage of those who answered strongly agree or agree.

In the context of the exam you took, did you find the exam questions to be more difficult, as difficult, or less difficult than you expected them to be?

Please tell us your main reason for not taking the exam.

* Asked of candidates that did not show up for the exam.

If you do not pass the exam, will you re-take the exam?

Key

- █ All Candidates
- █ Candidates who passed exam
- █ Candidates who failed exam

Source: pre-exam survey and post-exam survey, May–July 2011

Other Feedback

Candidates tend to hear about the CFA program through word-of-mouth, primarily from colleagues, classmates, friends and teachers.

55% of those employed indicate their employer currently supports their participation in the CFA Program, primarily by paying for candidate registration fees and offering paid study leave.

How did you first hear about the CFA Program?

* Other includes media coverage, CFA marketing effort, the internet, advertising, local CFA Institute society, and other.

Have you seen any CFA Institute advertisements in print or online in the past year?

CFA Institute is exploring the possibility of making the eBook available on a wider range of devices. Which device(s) would you use to access the eBook?

How does your employer currently support your participation in the CFA Program?

Excludes those who indicated Not Applicable (I am a student/unemployed)

About the Survey

The pre and post exam surveys were conducted among a random sample of half of the June 2011 CFA Program candidates. The pre-exam survey was open from 11 - 26 May and the post-exam survey from 24 June - 8 July. 13,144 candidates responded to the pre-exam survey (19 percent response rate with a margin of error of $\pm 0.8\%$) and 16,943 participated in the post-exam survey (24 percent response rate with a margin of error of $\pm 0.7\%$).

Key

- All Candidates
- Candidates who passed exam
- Candidates who failed exam

Source: pre-exam survey and post-exam survey, May-July 2011